6 Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex – The Kennedy Space Center Visitor Complex viewing area is a great way to watch a launch and experience all space exploration has to offer at the same time. Spend your day at the amazing Kennedy Space Center and then get a close up view of a spectacular launch. Admission and a viewing ticket is required – For more information visit www.KennedySpaceCenter.com. 405 Nasa Parkway W, 32953; 28.5246991, -80.68262579999998

LARGE PARKS

1 Chain of Lakes Park – Although your launch view from the ground is obstructed by vegetation here, this park makes our lists because of the Observation Tower, which offers sweeping views of the lagoon and a bird's-eye view for launch. The Observation Tower is only accessible from the trails, so walking (or bicycling will be involved), but the travel distance is worth it. The park has two playgrounds, walking trails, and plenty of parking, as well as restroom facilities. – 2300 Truman Scarborough Way, 32796; 28.6413487, -80.82679150000001

2 Sand Point Park – Directly on the riverfront next to the Max Brewer Bridge is Sand Point Park. With gorgeous views, wildlife viewing, playgrounds, picnic tables and a splash pad you cannot go wrong. In addition, this park allows dogs on a leash. Sand Point Park is located at the base of Max Brewer Bridge which will allow you parking to climb up the Max Brewer Bridge for an even better vantage point. 101 N Washington Ave, 32796; 28.6172412, -80.80736960000002

3 Space View Park – On the shore of the Indian River in downtown Titusville, this river park is landscaped with artistic sculpture, foliage, palms and hardwood trees. This is a great opportunity to immerse yourself in the space program while waiting for the launch. As you leisurely stroll through the park, you will find handprints and sculptures that will make you feel like you are actually one with space. It is directly across the lagoon from the Kennedy Space Center launch pads. 17 Orange Street, 32796; 28.6146253, -80.80595069999998

4 Parrish Park – Parrish park is situated on both sides of SR-402 at the A. Max Brewer Causeway east of the Max Brewer Bridge. Here you will see there is convenient access to the Indian River for fishing, water sports, sunbathing and launch viewing. Recreational amenities include picnic shelters, restrooms, boardwalk, fishing pier and boat ramps. A. Max Brewer Memorial Parkway, 32796; 28.6152329, -80.80751570000001

5 Playalinda Beach – Playalinda Beach is part of the largest uninhabited beach in all of Florida, the Canaveral National Seashore and also boasts some of the best waves on Florida's Space Coast. It is a spectacular spot for launch viewing with its close proximity to launch pads. There is a fee to enter Playalinda Beach but is free with a national park pass! East end of SR 402 – Playalinda Beach Entrance Station: 28.6450, -80.6834

SMALL PARKS

1 Max Brewer Bridge – This bridge is iconic in Titusville. It offers a great place for recreation and amazing views of the Indian River Lagoon as well as launches. Climb to the top of the bridge for the best view. Parking for this location can be found at the base of the bridge at Sand Point Park. A. Max Brewer Bridge Memorial Parkway, 32796; 28.6477976, -80.76574529999999

2 William J Manzo Memorial Park – This park is ideal for family fun with great launch views. Facilities include a playground near restrooms and picnic facilities that is well shaded by pine and palms. This park also features a paved walkway, grills, a pavilion and riverfront boardwalk. 3335 S Washington Ave, 32780; 28.5784002, -80.7989207

3 Rotary Park – Rotary Park boasts amazing river and launch views located right next to a McDonald's with indoor play area. There are many pavilions, a playground and restroom that is perfect for a family gathering for a launch. 4141 S Washington Ave, 32780; 28.5664941, -80.7978286

4 Riverfront Park – One of our newly redesigned parks in Titusville is Riverfront Park. This park offers gorgeous views with benches and amazing porch swings so you can watch the rocket launch in comfort and style! 4255 S Washington Ave, 32780; 28.5636185, -80.79830700000002

4 Kennedy Point Park – Kennedy Point Park offers a great shoreline walkway with benches for wildlife and shuttle viewing. There is also a pavilion, grills, restrooms and a boat ramp. 4749 S Washington Ave, 32780; 28.554939, -80.796379
