

LONGEST TABLE

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 2020
downtown titusville

breaking down barriers - building relationships - moving the community forward

“There is something profoundly satisfying about sharing a meal. Eating together, breaking bread together, is one of the oldest and most fundamentally unifying of human experiences.”

Barbara Coloroso

The Longest Table is not a new idea, cities across the country have been bringing the community together at a dinner table for several years. For the last two years, we have hosted 200 people from around our community at one table and have received rave reviews from all that attend.

The entire purpose of the dinner is to seat everyone at the same table and foster conversation and build relationships across economic, racial, religious and ethnic backgrounds—to spark new relationships and new ideas, enhance tolerance and respect, and continue to move our community in the right direction.

An event of this magnitude takes a lot of commitment—in both time and finances. We appreciate your commitment to this event and your financial support to help us make the event free of charge to insure we have a diverse representation at the table.
